OUR MISSION TO ESTABLISHING A NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL REPUTATION FOR THE WA WINE INDUSTRY.

The Perth Royal Wine Awards are Western Australia's premium wine competition, overseen by a prestigious team of WA, interstate and international judges. Wine has been judged at the Perth Royal Show since 1843 and the competition is regarded as critical to the success of establishing a national and even international reputation for the WA wine industry.

CHIEF JUDGE

STEVE FLAMSTEED

Director and Senior Consultant, Wine Network Consulting

Steve is a Director and Senior Consultant at Wine Network Consulting. He brings 30+ years of winemaking experience and industry knowledge to his work with clients and is well known for his expertise in cool climate winemaking, particularly Chardonnay and Pinot Noir.

In 2016 Steve was awarded Australian Gourmet Traveller Magazine's Winemaker of the Year, and was named the Wine Communicators Victorian Legend of the Vine in 2019.

During his 17 years as Chief Winemaker at Giant Steps in the Yarra Valley, Steve's reputation for producing clean, site-expressive wines achieved great success for the brand and established his reputation as one of Australia's most successful winemakers.

A highly experienced wine show judge, Steve is also regularly involved in training sessions for up-and-coming associate judges. He is a committee member for the Yarra Valley Wine Show, Victorian Pinot Noir Workshop, and the James Halliday Chardonnay and Cabernet Challenge. Steve is also a regular guest speaker at technical workshops and presentations throughout Australia and New Zealand.

Steve's background as a chef and cheesemaker led him into the world of wine after studying in France and working at Château du Bluzard in the Cote de Brouilly. He went on to complete a Bachelor of Science (Wine Science) at Roseworthy Agricultural College and is a Len Evans Tutorial scholar. Steve has also worked for Leeuwin Estate in Margaret River and Yarra Burn Winery in the Yarra Valley, and has completed several vintages overseas including in Alsace, Provence and Brouilly.

PANEL CHAIRS

EMMA GILLESPIE

Emma's home state of Western Australia has offered up some interesting and colourful career choices earlier in life including cooking, pearl farming and dental nursing. Finally settling on a Bachelor of Science in Viticulture and Oenology at Curtin University in Perth & Margaret River, the world of wine opened up the development of an unexpected passion.

Emma has been a part of the Deep Woods winemaking team for ten years now, and as the Senior Winemaker & Cellar Operations Manager, the multitude of successes of the winery motivate her daily to strive to make standout wines from one of the best regions in Australia. Judging in her eighth year at the Royal Perth Wine show, and second as panel chair, Emma appreciates the showcase of Australian wines vying for medals and trophies, and the high calibre of grape growing and winemaking on display. Leeuwin Estate in Margaret River and Yarra Burn Winery in the Yarra Valley, and has completed several vintages overseas including in Alsace, Provence and Brouilly.

JANE FAULKNER

Jane Faulkner is a journalist by training and a wine writer by vocation. Respected for her honesty and fairness yet rigour and independence in both writing and tasting, hence Jane works constantly at honing those skills. Words and wine. There is no better combination.

She contributes to numerous publications including Halliday magazine and is a reviewer for Australia's leading wine guide, Halliday Wine Companion plus writes the Australian section for the Hugh Johnson Pocket Wine Book.

She's an experienced wine judge, nationally and internationally, and has chaired numerous Australian shows. Born in Malaysia and lives in Melbourne, Jane never tires of travelling throughout the wine world including Australia in search of stories and wines from inspirational, thoughtful producers. Other than that, she drinks with gusto.

KIM HORTON

A fascination with wine and vineyards at a young age whilst growing up in the Swan Valley, led to Kim's first position in the wine industry during vintage 1995 with Houghton Wines. Following a successful vintage he went on to study Oenology at Charles Sturt University in Wagga Wagga.

21 years later, he finds himself at Willow Bridge in the Ferguson Valley and in front of him, an opportunity to work within a team whom have the drive and ambition to further build and enhance the Willow Bridge tradition. Kim has a firm belief that wines are made in the vineyard, the better the understanding of the vineyard and it's unique characteristics, the better the wines reflect the soil and the climate.

MARCUS SATCHELL

Marcus is our winemaker and co-owner. Born and bred in South Gippsland, Marcus has the region running through his veins. Having spent the last 12 years back home in Gippsland, kicking around dirt and helping shape many wines with many vineyards, there isn't much about vineyards and wines from Gippsland that he doesn't know.

He spent his formative years in the Yarra Valley and overseas forming friendships and working with some of the best in the business. Mentors and friends that he holds dear to his heart drive his ongoing pursuit of making better and better wine. If he's not off consulting, wine judging, pruning vines or talking passionately about his craft, you might find him out in the surf or playing music around town.

SIMON OSICKA

Simon has been working in his family wine business, Paul Osicka Wines, full time since 2010 and he is the third generation to do so. Previous to that Simon held various winemaking positions at Hardy's, Leasingham and Houghton. Simon has also done harvests in France, Germany, Italy and Canada.

Simon is currently chair of Judges of the Victorian Wine Show. Having called Western Australia home for a period he misses the beach and Ross Pamment.

JUDGES

PETER MUNRO

Peter has more than 25 years of winemaking experience, across numerous diverse regions in Australia and New Zealand.

He is currently the Group Red Winemaker for Vinarchy, overseeing all red wine production in Australia, in conjunction with being the Chief Winemaker of St Hugo with responsibility for the style and quality of this iconic and historical brand.

Peter lives in the Barossa Valley which has been his home for the majority of the last 20 years, and loves the opportunities this gives to ride his bike through the rolling hills of the region.

LIVIA MAIORANA

Livia is the winemaker for South by South West wines, which she founded with her partner in 2016. They farm two organic vineyards in Margaret River's southern sub-regions, one also home to their cellar door, and work with loyal growers across the south west to craft terroir- and vintage-driven wines.

Originally a Chemical Engineer, Livia's love of organic chemistry and wine culture led her to winemaking. She has completed vintages in Napa Valley, the Okanagan, Tuscany and Sicily. In 2019 she was a Young Gun of Wine finalist, winning the People's Choice Award. South by South West was a finalist for the 2022 James Halliday Dark Horse Winery of the Year and is a 5-star Halliday rated winery.

Livia sits on the Wines of Western Australia (WOWA) board, representing small producers under 150T. Since 2022 she has judged extensively, now a Senior Judge at the Perth Royal Wine Show, Wine Show of WA, WA Boutique & Single Vineyard Wine Show, and the Halliday Chardonnay and Cabernet Sauvignon Challenge. She also completed the AWRI Advanced Wine Assessment Course in 2022 and is seeking wine judging opportunities beyond WA in 2025.

ALICE DAVIDSON

Alice grew up amongst the apple and pear trees of the Adelaide Hills and studied and worked as a geologist before embracing her true love of wine. Globetrotting, tasting and working around France, Georgia, Canada and the USA fuelled her curiosity for great wines of many styles. After completing her degree in Viticulture and Oenology at Adelaide University she worked as a Winemaker for larger companies in McLaren Vale, and the Mount Benson/Robe region.

She began producing wines under her own label, Aunt Alice, in 2016. One barrel became four, which quickly became ten tonnes, a winery and a cellar door.

Her obsession with Chardonnay led her to Tasmania in early 2022 with husband Tom, dog Ziggy and daughter Ocean in tow. Here she is focused on producing delicious, vibrant and focused wines of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Riesling in an old apple shed on the Huon River.

JAPO DALLI CANI

Head Winemaker at McHenry Hohnen Vintners Jacopo was born in Soave, a prime wine region in the north-east of Italy. Growing up surrounded by vineyards and wineries, Japo was involved in wine production since an early age and pursued a career in winemaking. After graduating at the Viticulture and Oenology University of Conegliano, Italy and upon gathering valuable experience in his home country, Japo decided to broaden his knowledge by travelling to other wine regions both in Europe and in the new world. Japo completed internships for top producers in France, Australia, and New Zealand.

Impressed by the quality of the wines and by the beauty of the landscape, he returned to Western Australia and settled in Margaret River. Japo joined the McHenry Hohnen team in 2016 where he was appointed Head Winemaker in 2019. He has completed the AWAC course in Adelaide and has judged at the Langton's Margaret River Wine Show, the Geographe Alternative Varieties Wine Show and the Wine Show of WA.

JONATHON MATTICK

Jonathon brings a diverse background in both viticulture and winemaking. He has a long history of working in cool climate regions with a focus on premium Chardonnay production. After working in many regions across Australia and a few international vintages he has now settled in Orange NSW, attracted there by the soils, climate and the long history of the Canobolas vineyard. With a keen interest in regenerative and organic viticulture, he endeavours to grow and produce the best grapes from each harvest and highlight the unique qualities of the season as it unfolds.

He has judged at many National and Regional wine shows and brings a wealth of knowledge that spans from vineyard to wine production.

KATE LAURIE

Simon has been working in his family wine business, Paul Osicka Wines, full time since 2010 and he is the third generation to do so. Previous to that Simon held various winemaking positions at Hardy's, Leasingham and Houghton.

Simon has also done harvests in France, Germany, Italy and Canada. Simon is currently chair of Judges of the Victorian Wine Show. Having called Western Australia home for a period he misses the beach and Ross Pamment.

NINA THROSBY

Nina Throsby is the Group Sommelier for Kailis Hospitality Group working to curate wine lists for The Shorehouse, Island Market and Kailis Fish Market in Fremantle. Nina's experience in seeing a wide range of wines for three very diverse lists coupled with formal training, means she believes that great wine can be found all around.

Nina is currently studying with the Court of Master Sommeliers and has completed her Introductory and Certified levels and is actively studying for the Advanced exam. Nina also holds degrees in Anthropology, Human Biology and a Masters of Forensic Science from UWA.

RACHEL DAVENPORT

A love for science, art and travel guided Rachael into her career as a winemaker. She studied oenology at the University of Adelaide before setting off around the world as a flying winemaker.

After 5 years of travel and vintages in New Zealand, Italy, America, France and Portugal as well as the Hunter Valley, Robinvale, McLaren Vale and the Grampians, Rachael settled in the Swan Valley before establishing a vineyard and winery in the Perth Hills with her husband Josh. Rachael has been involved in tasting panels around the world and judged at regional wine shows.

SOPHIE WARD

Sophie was appointed Winemaker at Xanadu Wines in 2023 and has been working in the Margaret River wine region since 2014. Sophie holds a degree in Biochemistry from University of Canterbury in New Zealand, followed by a Masters degree in Winemaking from the University of Adelaide, with her Masters research being published in the American Journal of Oenology and Viticulture.

Sophie is passionate about global wine styles and has worked in the Barossa Valley, Cognac, Central Otago, Burgundy, and Canada's Okanagan Valley.

This is Sophie's first time as a Judge after several Associate Judge positions not only in Western Australia but also interstate.

JUDGES

TROY OVERSTONE

Troy grew up in Southwest WA just as the wine industry there was emerging. As a young child he helped his Grandparents and Uncle plant vines at their property in Metricup. This would later become Woody Nook Wines where his uncle was Winemaker for over 30 years. Although this spiked his interest in wine growing up, it wasn't until he spent seven months living in the Loire region in France at 21 that an epiphany moment occurred during a dinner there.

An amazing food and wine pairing that led to questioning how can you get these amazing and complex flavours just from a grape? This eventually led to him studying a Bachelor of Science degree in Viticulture and Oenology at Curtin University.
